MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, FBIS
THROUGH: Chief, Operations Group
SUBJECT: Monthly Report -- Swaziland Bureau -- July 1985

I. GENERAL

New Charge -- Charge Charles Lahiguera departed Mbabane 10 July for a new assignment in Washington. His replacement, Gerald Scott, who arrived the beginning of July, paid an orientation visit to the bureau on the 31st. Mr. Scott will be in charge of the mission until the arrival of the ambassador-designate, career officer Harvey Nelson, Jr., expected in August or September.

II. OPERATIONS

A. Editorial/Monitorial

1. On 20 July, Tim Carney, political officer in Pretoria, called to alert the bureau to a press conference by RSA State President Botha. The bureau placed an open watch on all media; and an hour later SAPA carried an embargoed report on the press conference in which the state president announced a state of emergency, giving broad powers to the police and imposing press censorship. The bureau filed the initial SAPA reports and followed up with reporting from all sources on police actions, acts of violence and political opposition to the move, including some from important business groups. The bureau reopened in the evening for five hours to process the television version of Botha's statement, as well as other reportage on the subject.

BBC newsburo praised the bureau's "good, fast handling" of this material. A message was also sent to the bureau from Deputy Assistant Secretary for African Affairs, Frank Wisner, and staff conveying "thanks to all the FBIS team in Mbabane for an outstanding job. Your messages are playing a key role in keeping us well informed on the fast pace of events during the current state of emergency. Excellent work; keep them coming."

2. On the 30th, BBC requested priority handling of Zimbabwe Finance Minister, Bernard Chidzero's budget speech. The bureau remained open until 3 a.m. to process the 11-take speech. BBC Part 4 thanked the bureau for a "splendid job in moving the budget very quickly."

B. Lateral Services

1. Political officer, Tim Carney, Pretoria, requested rapid processing of a statement by South African Minister of Cooperation, Development and Education, Gerrit Viljoen, that the government was considering revision of the pass laws restricting the movement of blacks and would introduce a proposal in the next parliament; a statement Carney termed "dynamite." The editor read to him the applicable portions of a report on the statement and called back to read him the statement after it had been translated.

2. The consulate general in Cape Town requested that it be removed from lateral service packages due to communications overload. Service to Cape Town will be resumed when it again functions as the embassy when the South African parliament begins meetings in mid-December. It serves in this capacity six months of the year when the South African Government is resident in Cape Town.

III. ADMINISTRATION

A. Personnel

STAT Bureau technician, [redacted] received a PSI to FBN 6/4 effective
STAT 7 July. Admin Assistant, [redacted] began work on the 15th.

B. Buildings and Grounds

The extension to the Portuguese monitoring room at the bureau was completed during the month. The bureau's 220vac system was rewired, with the power distribution panel relocated to the new extension. Additional emergency lighting was installed and an improved earthing grid was established for the station. Bonding of the roof sheets as protection against lightning strikes continues.
